

Personal Stories

Personal Stories

This resource is available in Kirindi with English subtitles and three other languages. To view the resources please click the buttons below. The resource will open in a new tab.

Author: Amparo Advocacy

Language: Kirindi / Rundi

Type of resource: Videos

About this resource: AMPARO Advocacy have developed videos with community member showcasing how support services have improved their lives in Australia.

The videos are available in Kirundi, Burmese, Swahili and Persian with English subtitles.

Jacqueline and Nasibu are from Burundi, and live in Brisbane with their six children. In this video they speak in Kirundi, their first language, about Claude's needs for support and assistance to live a good life.

[button_link url="https://www.amparo.org.au/claude-and-his-family-story/" target="_blank" title="Claude and his family's Story - Kirundi" display_style="blue"]

Hoe Say and his family are of Burmese ethnicity and have lived in Australia for the past seven years. In this video Hoe Say and his mother Ye Kyaw speak about their journey and their hopes for the future.

[button_link url="https://www.amparo.org.au/ho-says-story/" target="_blank" title="Hoe Say's Story - Burmese" display_style="blue"]

Esperance leads a full and active life in Brisbane with her family and is involved in many community activities. She discusses her life growing up in Congo with polio, how she settled in Australia and her plans and hopes for the future.

[button_link url="https://www.amparo.org.au/esperances-story/" target="_blank" title="Esperance's Story - Swahili" display_style="blue"]

Shahram is
from Iran
and has a vision
impairment,
he discusses how he has overcome
obstacles
and barriers to successfully study and work in Brisbane, Australia.

[button link url="https://www.amparo.org.au/shahrams-story/"
target="_blank" title="Shahram's Story - Persian"
display_style="blue"]