It’s not a disgrace… It’s dementia

It's not a disgrace... It's dementia

Author: Dementia Australia
Type of resource: Video
About this resource: Dementia Australia has created short films in 12 languages to raise awareness, reduce stigma and break myths about dementia in the CALD community. The film features carers of people living with dementia giving personal accounts in-languages, of their experiences. The films also include health professionals who talk abotu the condition and stress the importance of seeking help early.

This film was produced by Alzheimer's Australia NSW, with thanks to the Department of Health and Ageing (DOHA) and Family and Community Services. It was produced in partnership with Why Documentaries and the Multicultural Communities Council of the Illawarra.
