

Disability and discrimination - A young Muslim woman living with vision loss

Disability and Discrimination

A young Muslim woman living with vision loss

Author: Centre for Culture, Ethnicity & Health

Language: English with Arabic subtitles

Type of resource: Video

About this resource: A young Muslim women shares her experiences living with vision loss, and how a guide dog has created some difficulties within her Muslim community. The video helps to break down the barriers within the communities about disability and explain how accessing services can enhance lives.

[resources_link display_style="button"]