2 / 3

To request that we remove your personal information from our database, please contact us.

7. Cookies

Like many sites, this website may use cookies from time to time.

Cookies are small data files that a website is able to place on a user's hard drive to record aspects of that user's experience of the website. For example, we may use cookies to record that a user has visited a particular section of the website or that their browsing software was a particular version.

In this way, cookies can improve the operation of the website, and make the experience more efficient, more enjoyable, or more personalised. Importantly, in depositing information on a user's computer and referring to it later in the same session (sessional) or on a subsequent visit (persistent), cookies do not need to identify the user or record any personal information.
